WITH the tax on furs soon to be reduced - we hope - many of the ladies in your homes will be purchasing furs. Here certainly is an investment - whether it be mouton or mink - in a commodity about which the average person knows little or nothing. What could be more sensible than to seek the advice of a fellow alumnus whose competence and integrity in the selling and servicing of furs is assured by twenty-five years experience?

We have a unique plan whereby we sell furs at cost plus a small profit. In addition to which you have the positive assurance of obtaining quality merchandise, whatever the kind of fur.

It will more than pay you to investigate. An inquiry costs nothing; nor will it obligate you in the least. It's the money savingest deal in town!

We are experts in the storage and repair of furs, both of which we earnestly solicit.

VERY REV. WILLIAM L. KELEHER, S.J.

In many respects this has been a record year, and I look forward to closing it on the same note by welcoming back to the Heights a record number of Alumni on June 12th. I know I need not assure you that all the Fathers and members of the faculty are looking forward to the opportunity of greeting you here.

For those of you who haven't been on the campus recently, may I suggest a visit to our new St. Ignatius' Church on the way up the hill. We are more than pleased with the church and I am sure that you will share our enthusiasm once you have had an opportunity to visit it. Actually, it is the first building on the new B. C. campus; a more fitting entrance to the campus would be hard to imagine.

Coming up the hill, you will find that we have gone along well in the preparation for your Alumni Center. More and more I am confident that this building will serve the interests of the Alumni and the students and will be one of the great returning places for all, which will keep firm the bonds between Alumni and College.

I know you will be happy to see that we are under way on another building program. About the middle of May, we broke ground for the classroom building which we hope to have completed for occupancy in September, 1951. The much needed and long desired cafeteria will occupy the first floor. The rest of the building is given over to classrooms and offices. In general architectural style, it will follow the picture of the Science Building and, in its location, close off the new quadrangle.

It gives me great personal happiness to report on the activities of our lay faculty and student body. Most of you know by this time of the grant established by the members of the lay faculty, which will enable a graduate of the Class of 1950 to pursue higher studies at a university of his own choice. To me and to all of us, this act bespeaks the loyalty and interest of our lay faculty members; I know it will serve as an inspiration to the students who pass through their classes. At the same time, the graduates of 1950 are donating to the College, as their class gift, a beautiful statue of Our Lady of Grace. The new shrine stands adjacent to the Library lawn; a place at once private and public, and I am sure it will be the center of greater devotions to our Blessed Mother.

Looking forward to another year, the picture of Boston College is still bright. The falling off in applications predicted some years ago and annually expected is here, but not in the numbers promised. From all indications, it would seem that the campus next year will be just about as busy as it has been the last few years.

To all the members of the Alumni, I take great pleasure in presenting the Class of 1950. As individuals and as a group they leave us and go to you—as representative a group as I have ever known. Their loyalty to the College has been established and I am delighted to welcome them into the Association.

New Building Started

Construction of a new philosophy building with classroom accommodations for 1200 students started last month.

This latest Maginnis and Walsh addition will be of stone with the collegiate Gothic style of the other five buildings on the campus.

The site of the new building is behind and to the right of the Tower Building when approaching it from Commonwealth Avenue (on the hill going down to Alumni Field).

In addition to classrooms and laboratories, the four story edifice will have a cafeteria in the basement capable of serving 2,000 students. It will also contain a lounge for the seniors, a faculty lounge and a small dining room for the faculty and administrative officers and their guests. On the fourth floor will be a small auditorium and offices.

Very Rev. William L. Keleher, S. J., expects the building will be ready for occupancy by September, 1951.

Pope Honors Alumni Bishops

In recent months Pope Pius XII honored two distinguished Alumni by appointing Most Rev. John J. Wright, '31, Bishop of the newly created diocese of Worcester and making Most Rev. John J. McEleney, S. J., '18, titular bishop of Zeugma and vicar-apostolic of Jamaica, B. W. I.

In March, Bishop Wright was installed as Bishop of Worcester. He was born in 1909 in Dorchester. Graduating from Boston Latin School in 1928 he then entered B. C., receiving his degree in 1931. He entered St. John's Seminary in 1931. One year later he went to the North American College in Rome, taking courses at the Gregorian University. On December 8, 1935, Bishop Wright was ordained in Rome. In 1939 he was appointed to the faculty of St. Johns Seminary to teach Philosophy. In 1943 he became secretary to the late Cardinal O'Connell. After the death of the Cardinal in 1944 he became secretary to Archbishop Cushing. Bishop Wright received the title of Papal Chamberlain in 1944 and Domestic Prelate in 1946. He was installed as Auxiliary Bishop of Boston in June, 1947.

Bishop McEleney was serving as Provincial of the New England Province of the Society of Jesus previous to his consecration as Bishop on April 15 at the Cathedral in Boston by Archbishop Cushing. He was born in 1895 in Woburn. He graduated from Woburn High School, and at B. C. he received an A. B., degree in 1918. The same year he entered the Society of Jesus. After courses of study at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Woodstock, Md., and Weston, and a teaching assignment in the Philippines, he was ordained in 1930.

From 1931 to 1937 Bishop McEleney was assistant master of novices at Shadowbrook, Lenox, with the exception of one year of study in North Wales. In 1937 he became Rector of Shadowbrook. Then he became Rector and President of Fairfield University, Fairfield, Connecticut. In 1944 he was appointed Provincial.

Bishop Shaughnessy

Most Rev. Gerald Shaughnessy, S. M., Bishop of Seattle, Washington, died on May 18 after a long illness. Bishop Shaughnessy graduated with the Class of 1909 and received an LL.D., from the College in 1946. R. I. P.

In the ice sport the club won the Sands trophy, emblematic of the N. E. League championship for the seventh time in ten years, perhaps outgrowing that league so that next season a new organization may be formed, B. C., B.U., and Northeastern moving in with the Ivy League to form a new combination. Despite the loss of key men from 1949 and innumerable injuries, the club was selected for the third time in a row to compete in the Nationals at Colorado Springs. Superior play by Colorado, sparked by two greater Boston boys, Frasca and Ray, brought the bunting to the host team for the first time in the history of the competition at the Broadmoor Ice Palace. B. C. was completely outplayed by the Westerners in the first game, but injuries alone brought defeat in the consolation battle with Michigan, for Harrington was out of action all afternoon while George Sullivan was rendered hors de combat in the first sixty seconds, leaving the Eagles shorthanded. Struggling against such odds, the Kelley men made a gallant defense of their title and went down flying.

Track is more disappointing than ever. Despite the appearance of such stars as Jim Taylor and Irving Howe, the team is not well balanced, yet on University Heights are several men who could do well if they would make the effort. Few winners have been uncovered in the several meets that have been conducted, and in these meets Harvard, Bowdoin, Maine, Amherst and Holy Cross have taken the measure of the Maroon and Gold. It is a far cry from the days of old when the name of B. C. was synonymous with track supremacy. The lack of success is in no way a reflection on the work of Coaches Ryder and Gilligan, nor on the policy of the Athletic Association itself. It is not true that B. C. is interested only in football, basketball and hockey! Squads are as large as ever, but the lads are apathetic. However, the freshman team is far better balanced than is the varsity, and in another year Captain Irving Howe may lead a definite upward trend in track and field.

Baseball at present is at the lowest ebb that Boston baseball has seen since the war. Coaching is good, for Johnny Temple has fitted in nicely with plans, but the team is simply not playing good baseball. In the games played thus far, the club is batting a mere 208. Those of us who remember other days shudder when batters leave twenty men stranded on bases as they did one day recently.

The win and lose totals are not bad, but the brand of baseball is. Harvard has been defeated twice by Levinson; R. I. State, Providence, B. U., and A. I. C. have split even with the Eagles; M. I. T. played a 2 - 2 tie. The pitching staff is good enough for the long 24 game schedule, but the batting and fielding is simply not up to the standard set by Eagles of old. Greatest loss is the keystone combination of Yurevich and Brosnahan, the fastest double play combination in college ball for the last four years, and although the new men Harrington and Hewes are good ball players, as a combination they lack the class of last year's duo.

Our hopes for a garrison finish were revived in mid-May on the first really warm days, when an improving club beat a good Colby nine 9 - 2, behind the hurling of Bill Sholz, and on the following day led by dependable Ed Walsh, outclassed Providence. At present writing, Bob Fitzgerald and Billy Ryan are heavy stickers, and once others put their wood to the ball, the Eagles may yet fly high.

High point in the spring sports program is the New England championship won for the third consecutive time by Coach John Kelley's talented golfers. Despite the loss of Gael Coakley, the Maroon brought us honor when in the tournament of 39 N. E. colleges, the Eagles not only won but dominated the meeting by qualifying three men, Captain Bob Crowley, Dick Kinchla, and Harry Ernst at the Oakley Country Club. In the finals, three Kellemen battled the medalist of the first day, Paul Harney of Holy Cross, the lone non-B. C. survivor. Kinchla, 1949 champion, eliminated Harney; Crowley set back Ernst, and then a new champion was crowned when Crowley won over Kinchla 4 and 2. Congratulations to the 1950 team champions and to Captain Crowley, Kinchla, and Ernst, and to the whole team that did so well at Oakley.

Important Notice—The locale of our Fall dinner has been changed. As the College has gone to great expense in fitting up the new Alumni headquarters, it was suggested by Miah Falvey and Fred Murphy that I get in touch with the Alumni Secretary and see if suitable arrangements could be made in order that we may hold our next dinner there. Accordingly I have made such arrangements. I feel sure that it will meet with the approval of all as it will give us the opportunity to view the new headquarters and help out the Association as well. We had 75% of the class present at the last dinner, see if we can make it 100% this time. The date—the night before the Holy Cross game. Don't forget the Father Ed Hartigan Summer meeting. Due notice will be sent to all in plenty of time to make your plans for the same. A recent visitor to Boston was our old friend Leo Noonan, who was on from Farmersville, New York, to address the Quincy Chamber of Commerce.

Rev. Edward U. Conroy has been appointed pastor of the Immaculate Conception Parish in Somerville. He was formerly pastor of St. Michael's, Hudson.

Monsignor MacKenzie was the guest speaker at the final session of the Cana Conference conducted by the Oblate Fathers at Lowell during the Spring. The subject of the session was "Marriage, the Church's Legislation and Practice." President Ed Sullivan of Salem Teachers College was the honorary chairman of the College's Newman Club Communion Breakfast held at the Hotel Statler.

Father Tom Heagney of St. Patrick's Lynn, inform us of the laying of the cornerstone of the convent which appropriately was started on St. Patrick's Day last year.

Our sympathy to Father Pat Flaherty on the death of his mother and to Doctor Frank Devlin on the death of his sister.

Monsignor MacKenzie is making arrangements for a class luncheon on Alumni Day, June 12. When details have been completed announcements will be sent through the mail. Please mark your calendar for this important date.

Things We Remember—The first class outing at the heights on Ascension Thursday in 1909 when we were juniors at B. C. High. The old barn on the spot where St. Mary's Chapel now stands was the only structure on the entire site of Boston College at that time.

Rev. Stephen F. Moran is now pastor of St. John's, Quincy, and Rev. George F. Wiseman is pastor of St. Michael's, Hudson.

1916

JAMES L. O'BRIEN

41 Pond Circle, Jamaica Plain 30

Al Smith's boy is now teaching at Newport, R. I.

Father George Casey, who is a regularly enrolled student at Harvard, is editor of the column "Driftwood," a weekly feature in the Pilot.

Monsignor Charles McInnis, the spiritual director of the League of Catholic Women, has been appointed pastor of Our Lady of Presentation church, Brighton. Kindly remember in your prayers Frank Driscoll's mother and the sister of Father John Reed, S. J. The class will hold its annual Alumni Day luncheon at the Commonwealth Country Club on June 12.

THOMAS D. CRAVEN

John Flynn presided over the annual dinner on April 24th. Among those present were: Fr. Maurice Dullea, S. J., Fr. John Connelly, Bill Reid, John Mahoney, "Bo" Mahoney, Phil Dwyer, Dr. Charley Twomey, Dr. Charley Smith, Mose Murphy, Jim Kelley, John Hennessey, Bill Welch, Jack Doyle, Frank Lee, Frank Heanue, Bill McCormack, Rado McKeon, Bill Curley, Les Shea. Several of the "old guard" were unable to be present—Fr. Bob Sheridan, S. J., was hospitalized; Eddie Austin, now fully recovered, was at Univ. of Mass. for a three months' course in Public Health; Fr. Bert Shea, had a parish party down in Kingston; Fr. Frank Quinn was enroute by air to Rome; Jack Fleming couldn't get away from the bank in Hous-ton; Eddie Tracy was under orders from Dr. Cy Lydon to take things easy; your humble scribe was taking a Civilian Orientation Course at the U. S. Naval Base at Norfolk, Va.

John Mahoney has been transferred temporarily from Worcester to Boston.

Dr. Charley Twomey and family are making plans to go to Rome during the summer.

"Porky" Flynn will not be around for Alumni Day because of his tour to Europe beginning in June and lasting into the summer. Son John will join the folks in Rome late in the summer.

Walter and Mrs. Durnan have announced the engagement of daughter Ruth, a junior at Regis, to Paul C. Johnson of Dayton, Ohio, a graduate of M. I. T.

Fr. Joe Merrick, S.J., continues his seasonal letters from Baghdad. We are in receipt of his Christmas greeting and message and also his Easter blessing and story.

Alan Quinn passed away early in March. To his mother and family we extend our deepest sympathy with the prayer that his soul may rest in peace. Attending the services at St. John's Church, Canton, were Father Maurice Dullea, S. J., John Flynn, Frank Heanue, Bill Reid, John Hennessey, Marty Higgins, Bo Mahoney, Walter Durnan, Mose Murphy and your scribe.

Frank Limont was in town in March with his family to attend the services for his mother-in-law, Mrs. Pelagia Mikolajewski, a pioneer among the Polish families in South Boston. To the family we extend the sympathy of the class for the loss of this sterling character.

Don't forget the Fund for the renovation of Alumni Hall.

M. FRANCIS NOLAN

26A Shepard Street, Cambridge

The Class congratulates and extends good wishes to Most Rev. John J. McEleney, S.J., newly consecrated bishop of Jamaica, British West Indies.

Have received an interesting letter from Dan Harkins who is at present Chief of the Intelligence Division office of the Land Commissioner in Bremen, Germany. Dan has had an interesting service with the U. S. Military Government in Germany since his discharge from the Navy after 36 months overseas duty in the Naval Intelligence Service in Africa, England, France and Germany. He is married and has a son, Daniel, now attending William College after completing a period of study at the Free University of Berlin. Dan would particularly like to hear from Joe Forrester, Tom Sheerin and Ed Sullivan.

Frank Roland has been appointed master of the High School of Commerce. The position is the third highest in the Boston school system.

1920

J. ROBERT BRAWLEY

33 Pomfret St., West Roxbury 32 dear John as this commencement marks the thirtieth one since the class graduated from the heights and began the long struggle of life and since the only notes we have for this issue on the members are the elevations of father Charles Riley to the pastorate of the new Our Lady of Lourdes church at Carver and of father Richard Meshane to the pastorate of our lady of sorrows church at Sharon plus the engagements of Patricia and Mary Scanlan daughters of our Tom it is only fitting that on this anniversary the class should pledge anew its loyalty to alma mater and to the alumni association and as we meet on alumni day we recall those days of ours when the tower building alone housed our class rooms and as we see how those saplings we planted have long since grown into beautiful linden row we breathe a prayer in memory of our Walter Byrnes, Ralph Caouette, Ted Collins, Joe Degnan, John Donohue, Jim Foley, Larry Gorman, Howard Keefe, Tom Luby, Pat Logue, Jim Morrissey, Joe Mulligan, Mike O'Connell, Bill O'Halloran, Bill Power and Eukie Scannell who during the intervening years have gone before us to their eternal reward.

Bob Brawley

The sympathy of the class is extended to the wife and family of our classmate, John C. Donahue who died on Good Friday.

Congratulations to Rev. Edward A. McDonough on his appointment as director of the Veterans Administration chaplaincy service.

GORDON F. IRONS

9 Emmonsdale Rd., W. Roxbury 32

On Sunday, March 12, the Class held its Annual Communion Breakfast at the Heights. Mark Russo was chairman of the committee. Very Rev. William L. Keleher, S. J., President, and Father John Tobin, S.J., were guests. The following were present: Monsignor Walter J. Furlong, Mark Russo and son, Jerry Mahoney and son, Morgan Ryan and son, Gordon Irons and son, Tom Bunyon, Jack Burke, Judge John Burns, Linus Callen, Charlie Coyle, Bill Cunningham and son, Tom Dee and son, Ed Foy and two sons, Joe Flynn, Tom Foyne, John Foster and son, Ed Gallagher and two sons, Dr. Vincent Kelley and two sons, Henry McInerney, Ralph Monks, Hugh O'Regan and son, Steve Griffin, Gene Sullivan, and Judge John Sullivan.

Rev. Michael J. Finnegan was promoted from assistant at St. Brigid's parish, South Boston, to parish priest of St. Joseph's, Pepperell. Henry McInerney, who has been master in charge of the Boston School for Veterans, is now headmaster of the Girls High School. Henry was tendered a banquet at the Copley Square Hotel by the teachers of the School for Veterans.

Gene O'Neil has been appointed master in charge of the School for Veterans, succeeding Henry McInerney. Gene's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Philip E. O'Neil of Roxbury, recently celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary with a family reunion at the Hotel Beaconsfield.

Nat Hasenfus of 1922 met Jimmy Fitzpatrick in Portland recently. Jimmy is director of athletics at Portland High School and is also in charge of the Portland municipal stadium.

The sympathy of the Class is extended to Dr. Robert R. Culbert on the death of his father and to Father Francis X. Sarjeant, S.J., on the death of his brother.

Leo Callanan has been appointed consul general at Yokohama, Japan. He left last month to assume his new duties accompanied by his wife, his son and daughter. Leo's new address is American Consul General, Polad Yokohama Branch,

A la Samuel Pepys. Enjoyed self at ye banquet of ye class at Coffee House, Vendome, in late February. Despite vile unclemency of weather, thirty-odd trenchermen answered call of Chairman Arthur Mullin and responded right nobly to ye toast of ye toastmaster, Nat Hasenfus, who called each for a two minute oration on devious and sundry topics. Father Sherlock defended his Republican thesis to the complete satisfaction of John White (best of the White boys by his own admission). Rob Walsh built for us the new B. C. High, stone by stone. Ye president, Pastor James Doyle, conducted a very successful revival, eked out by Rev. William Long, Rev. Jeremiah Moriarty, Rev. John Connors of the Witch City, and Rev. Francis Morrissey of the Province of Maine.

Headmaster Canty from nearby Everett, once treasurer in charge of "America", taught Vice-President Collins of the First National Bank a few new wrinkles about banking systems and technique. T. W. Collins and his partner James Collins, lately from Revere engaged in quiet conversation, as befits them. At ye suggestion of ye Hayes brothers, ye old Cantabrigian, Master W. P. Elbery, was named chairman for the next convocation. One Matthew Heaphy, now a double for brother John, joined with Leonard Healy for coffee in the anteroom, where they were entertained by John McKearin, George McKim and James Reynolds, kin to Joshua.

Thomas Mahan represented ye Latin School as Frederick Moran did the Trade School and Arthur Morrissey the neighboring hamlet of Somerville. John Norton, golfing dominie from the Heights, reported activities in New Towne. Remembrance faileth me, yet I believe that John Nyhan conversed earnestly with Master A. Tierney in one far corner of ye apartment, along with those perennially loyal chaps, Malloy, Heddermon and Curtin.

News from Fleet Street is scanty. Yet rumor hath it that Edward Bell is doing right well as coach of field events for all Boston schools, in the White stadium; that James Caffrey, Jr. was entered in the BAA marathon, thus following in the spike marks of his illustrious dad; that Henry Elliot Foley hath been dubbed member of the Silver Jubilee Class Committee of ye Harvard Law School; that John Meade now holdeth forth as head man at the Sherwin School in ye town of Roxbury; that Ed Sheehan, whom we hear on WVOM, is none other than the son of our William; that son Bob of the Hasenfi made the Sunday Globe Magazine as a member of the B. C. Canoe Club; and that after all, every member of our class is a right good chap . . and so to bed.

Our Class observed its 28th Laetare Sunday Communion Breakfast, March 19 at the Heights with an attendance of about 70 fathers and sons. Mass was celebrated by our classmate, Father Patrick Collins, S.J., in the Library Building and was offered up for the souls of our departed classmates. Breakfast followed in the Tower Building.

President Ed Garrity acted as chairman and presented the speakers. Father Collins once again acquainted us with the growth, difficulties and prospects of the various schools. Our speaker of the day was Dan Gallagher, '92, who has been with us through the years and has never failed to enrich our loyalty, ideals and spirituality. A talk by Dan Gallagher is climax enough for any gathering, but we had another. In appreciation of his long and arduous work for the class, Gerald Coughlin, assistant superintendent of the Boston schools, was presented a wrist watch. Gerry's response contained the fact that this was the first time in his life that he had been completely "surprised". In a later talk with "Scriptor" he wished each member of the class to realize how grateful he is for this superb gesture.

A committee was then appointed to "Brink" back the officers for the coming year. They are: President, Cece McGoldrick; vice-president and chairman of special committee, Dr. Phil McGovern; treasurer, George Olesen; secretary and scriptor, Frank Ford. Besides those mentioned above the following were in attendance: Jerry O'Brien, Joe Sweeney, Walter Dimmock, Dr. Larry McCarthy, Tim Tully, Louis Tracy, George Gormley, Dr. Len Morrissey, Matt Butler, Joe Comber, Ed Fogarty, Gaynor Wellings, Joe Crane, Jim Daly, Dr. Ed Burke, Tom Eccles, "Chick" O'Donnell, Frank Hickey, Joe Lee, Tony Comerford.

The Class committee of which Dr. Phil McGovern is chairman is composed of Ed Garrity, Walter Dimmock, Dr. Larry McCarthy and Jerry O'Brien.

Congratulations to our first class pastor, Father Norbert McInnis, who takes over at Norwell after long service at St. John's church, Winthrop. Father Norbert has always been one of the most loyal classmates.

That was nice reading about Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sweeney acting as sponsors for a large Confirmation class at the dedication of a shrine in Holbrook, Mass., with Archbishop Cushing officiating. Put the real news is that the shrine was donated by the Sweeneys.

The Class held its Annual Communion Breakfast on Sunday, April 11 with Mass at St. Mary's Chapel and breakfast at the Hotel Beaconsfield. There were 29 present including several that have not been seen at class functions for some time. Plans were discussed for a dinner dance to be held before Alumni Day and members will be notified by mail as to particulars.

Every member of the class whose address is a matter of record with the class secretary has received a class directory, and if for any reason anyone has been missed, a request to John Holbrow will produce results—if there are any left by the time your request is received.

Some confusion has arisen among certain members of the class who have made donations to the Alumni Loyalty Fund and to the Class Mailing Fund. Donations to the Alumni Fund are to be made to the Alumni office and will be acknowledged in the Alumni News, while donations to the Mailing Fund are to be made to your correspondent who is acting as class treasurer. 51 members of the class have subscribed to the Mailing Fund and these have been acknowledged by your treasurer. The balance of the fund at the present time is $27.57.

Henry E. Jennings has severed his connections with Lever Bros., and is now office manager for the Lally Column Co., on Erie Street, Cambridge.

Congratulations and best wishes to Father Charlie Foley and Ed Sullivan on their promotions. Father Foley is now pastor of a newly erected parish at Point of Pines, Revere, and Father Sullivan is pastor of St. John's parish, East Bridgewater.

Cornelius O'Brien, All-American tackle in 1919 and 1920, has been appointed a captain in the Boston police force, traffic division. He is married and resides in Charlestown with his wife and four children.

Al Keenan has bought his own hardware business in Marlboro, after years of background experience. We wish him lots of luck. Met Ed Mullooney shopping in Filene's recently and he says he positively will not miss our next time.

Ray Scott, head of the Science Department at Rindge Tech, was actively interested in the State Science Fairs conducted in April. By the way, your correspondent is back with his old Chevrolet dealer, Jack Delaney at Mattapan, promising to do his best for any of the boys who want a new Chevrolet although unfortunately, Ray was kept waiting a bit for his new one. Rev. Paul Rock made the front pages capturing a rectory burglar about two months ago. Father Paul held him until the police arrived.

The Bill Cunninghams had dinner at the Toll House recently with the John Dooleys and John Dorsey and girl. John Dooley is doing his photographic work in great style, and showed us his set-up for processing his work. He did the photography at the First Communion ceremony at the Cenacle last month. Ray Scott's son, Ray, was instructed there, as was my youngest son.

Rev. Jeremiah Foley, St. Joseph's Somerville, looked as handsome as ever in the April 1 issue of the Pilot, posing with his C. Y. O Senior Basketball champs.

The Annual Memorial Mass for the deceased members of the class was celebrated on Sunday, May 28 at St. Mary's Chapel at the Heights. A breakfast followed at the Hotel Beaconsfield. Since our 1949 Mass two more of our classmates have gone to their eternal reward—Rev. Daniel Sullivan and Frank Malone. Our total dead now number 30. God be good to them! "To live in hearts we leave behind, is not to die."

Dr. John Carroll has been sworn in as superintendent of the Massachusetts Hospital School at Canton. He is a visiting orthopedic surgeon at St. Elizabeth's Hospital and the Norwood Hospital, as well as an instructor in orthopedic surgery at Tufts College Medical School.

Dan O'Leary, head of the social sciences department at Girls High School was the guest speaker at the April Communion Breakfast of St. Peter's Holy Name Society, Dorchester.

Attorney Dave Sullivan of Webster was active in the campaign for the new Children's Hospital. He received a distinguished service award from the hospital authorities for his services.

John E. Sullivan is director of personnel at Fisher Business College, Boston.

Lt. Col. John L. O'Keefe is on the staff and faculty of the Army Chemical School in Maryland.

Joe Barry is a candidate for sheriff of Suffolk County.

Joe Bruton continues to prosper in real estate business in New York.

John F. Cavanaugh is in the automobile business in Lexington.

Dr. John Foley is a resident physician at the State Hospital in Canton.

Ray Finnegan is still ill. We offer a prayer for his early recovery.

Very Rev. Walter Leach has gone to Rome on a Holy Year pilgrimage.

PROFOUND DISCUSSIONS AT
'29 DINNER

Atomic Energy, Journalism and Forensic Medicine Topics.

More than 45 members of the Class of 1929 gathered for their 21st annual dinner at the Hotel Vendome on Friday, April 21, and heard members of the class lead a dignified discussion of such assorted topics as atomic energy, census taking, journalism and forensic medicine.

"Theology and the Atom Bomb" was the topic selected by Father Frank Harkins for a gripping address, the brevity of which was regretted by his classmates. Father Harkins later took the floor with some interesting sidelights on census taking. Dr. William F. Flynn, recently named a member of the American College of Physicians, spoke on forensic medicine while Alfred Monahan, who has just celebrated his 25th anniversary with the Boston Globe, delivered an interesting talk on the history of journalism, and related the story of a sensational arrest in Hull in which he took part 21 years ago. Father James McManus, who had accompanied Mr. Monahan on that occasion, was able to lend verisimilitude to the Hull story with additional details.

Henry A. Kievenaar, long time treasurer of the class was elevated to the presidency despite his modest protests of unworthiness. Following his unanimous election, he was borne to the rostrum on the shoulders of his enthusiastic classmates and installed in place of President Paul Markey. George Donaldson was chosen as vice-president, Jim Riley as treasurer after discovery by the class that there was a treasury, Jim Alphen, realtor, recently named Assessor at Boston, as secretary, and Dr. Bill Hafferty, Bob Hughes, Bill Ryan, the MTA attorney, Gerry Trepanier and Al Monahan as members of the Board of Governors, with instructions to begin planning for the 25th reunion. Present at the dinner were Atty. Edward U. Lee, Atty. Henry M. Leen, a member of the Brink reward board, Tom Conroy, Father "Chick" Glennon, Dr. T. Leo O'Connell, the Providence specialist, Leo Shea, Revere schoolmaster, Bernie Kilroy, Paul Donovan, now at the Gavin school, South Boston, Ed Connaughton, Phil (Confrater William) Stuart, Frank Cadigan, Atty. Jack Flynn, who was manager of B. C.'s best football team in 1928, Pete Dolan, teacher at Latin School, Dr. Art Morrissey, Jim Regan, down from Lawrence, Will O'Leary, Leo Haley, of the Boston Housing Authority, Ed Sullivan, Pat Murphy, Vin Roberts, Atty. Bill LaFay, the Venezuelan consul, Father Paul McManus, S. J., who was Father Crawford's prize physics pupil, Dr. Ken Brown, the orthopedic surgeon, Jud Connors, Joe Birmingham, the banker, Bob Buck, teaching at Jamaica Plain High and B. C. Intown, who is a leading member of the K. of C. speakers bureau, Past President Jerry Mahoney, of the Appellate Tax Board, John Martin, the Newton comptroller, Henry Keenan, A. Barr Dolan and your correspondent.

Mark J. A. Crehan is now president of the Boston College Club of Connecticut. Gerry Trepanier reports enthusiastically on the Boston College Club of Lawrence, where Father Paul McManus, S. J., was a recent speaker.

The sympathy of the class is offered to Henry Keenan and Alfred Monahan, who recently lost their fathers. May they rest in peace.

Rev. Justin C. Durocher has been appointed administrator of St. Agnes' Parish, Arlington, and Rev. Timothy P. O'Connell has been released from the service of the Archdiocese to serve in the new Diocese of Worcester.

Jerry McCarthy now represents the Narragansett Brewery in the Brockton-South Shore area.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Higgins enjoyed an April vacation in Bermuda. Roger O'Sullivan acted as a judge in the suburban schools' spelling bee.

Harold Kelley is operating the Kelley Fuel Company in Arlington. Judge John Connelly was the guest speaker at the April Round Table meeting of the Philomatheia Club. Rev. Neil O'Connor is chaplain with the 2500th Air Base Group, Mitchell Air Force Base, New York. Also in New York is Rev. Linus McSheffrey, C. P., who is stationed at the Passionist Monastery, Jamaica, L. I.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hockman upon their recent blessed event, a fourth child and first daughter.

Ed O'Neil is an apple agent in the Nashoba Valley. Will Ed Foley of Shelburne Falls please get in touch with him?

Class agent Frank McNulty has been working hard to have our class near the top in the Alumni Fund drive. Contributions will be credited both to the Class Gift Fund and the Alumni Fund.

Al McCarthy reports that a banner attendance is expected at our 20th anniversary reunion, a buffet dance, at the Philomatheia Chalet, Saturday, June 10.

HENRY M. LEEN

7 Winn Street, Woburn

Frank Bertsch living in Larchmont, N. Y., and treasurer of Harriet Hubbard Ayer, has twin daughters in the 4th grade. Also living in Larchmont is Jerome Doyle. John P. Barry is with Pan-American Airways.

Ed Casey is a professor at Rhode Island State College. He resides in Saunterstown, R. I.

Rev. Joseph D. Daley has been transferred to St. John's Winthrop, and Father Edward T. O'Connell has been appointed director pro tem of the Cambridge Catholic Charitable Bureau.

1932

JOHN P. CONNOR

28 Dickinson Road, Brighton 35

Rev. Francis Finnegan has returned home after a 5 week pilgrimage to Rome with Cardinal Spellman, and an audience with the Pope.

John Collins is a supervising principal in the Somerville schools. He has five children, four sons and a daughter.

Bill Coogan is forsaking the South Shore and returning to Boston. He recently bought a home in West Roxbury.

Bill Cannon is a military science instructor at Boston Latin School. Ed Stewart is very busy these days at his real estate office in Scituate. For the first time in the history of St. Elizabeth's Hospital a colored telecast of a surgical operation was presented in the hospital auditorium by Dr. Joseph P. Lynch, before the members of St. Luke's Guild, national organization of Catholic physicians. A delicate heart surgery was performed. Rev. Vincent Piscitelli has been transferred to the Most Precious Blood parish, Hyde Park.

JOHN F. CURLEY

24 Federal Street, Boston 10

In order to explain the duties of Class Reporter as indicated above it is proper to note that the Class Committee is organized for the calendar year 1950 as follows: C. W. O'Brien, Chairman, John Hanrahan, Treasurer, John Curley, Secretary, Jim Connolly, Fund Agent, and Ray Callen, Program. Each calendar year these officers will rotate and in that order.

The first class function for the year was a big success. At the annual dinner thirty-three members of the class enjoyed one of the best and most convivial meetings we have ever had. Those who did not receive a notice of the dinner should send their correct address to the secretary right away. Fred Cassidy is now living in Scranton, Pa., at 502 E. Market Street. He is still associated as an inspector with the Federal Food and Drug Administration in the Select Building in downtown Scranton.

Paul Crotty, we hear, is doing special research work in meteorology in Washington, D. C. Congratulations to Bill Hogan for his recent success in the State of Maine rate case for the New England Tel. & Tel. Bill was counsel for the company and obtained a decision from the Public Utility Commission up there. His accomplishment has received high praise and the decision will likely set a precedent of long standing not only in the State of Maine but throughout the country. We regret to report the passing of another member of our class, Bill Shanahan in Troy, N. Y. Bill had been ill for a long time and passed away last March 28. Ray Callen went up to Troy for the funeral and acted as a pall-bearer. Bill is survived by his wife, Susan. Maurice Whalen is president of Whalen & Crowther, Inc., Public Relations, at 79 Milk St., Boston. Charles L. Quinn is an insurance counsellor with office at 10 Post Office Square, Boston.

Eugene McDonald, M.D., is chief of Radiology at Columbia Hospital for Women. He has an extensive X-Ray practice in the District of Columbia.

The class will celebrate its sixteenth reunion with a repeat of last year's most successful anniversary meeting. The reunion will be held on Alumni Day, Monday, June 12, at the Hotel Beaconsfield in Brookline. Service will begin at 12:30 P. M. The class will proceed in a group after the dinner to the Heights for attendance at the Boston College-Holy Cross baseball game.

The following have been nominated for election to the Board of Governors at the class meeting on Alumni Day: Dr. Jack Barry, Lawrence; Dan O'Brien, Milford; Dr. Walter O'Neil, New Bedford; Greg Sullivan, West Roxbury and Scituate; Jerry Weidman, Jamaica Plain.

Walter Dray, formerly of Hyde Park, is now residing in Brighton. He is a vocational advisor with the V.A. His first child, a daughter, Marie, is now about seven months old. "Chick" Artesani, chairman of the class board, recently announced the arrival of his fifth child. He is the assistant majority leader in the House of Representatives. Fathers John Tierney, John Saunders, and Bill Noonan are in Rome on a Holy Year Pilgrimage. Dr. Jim Flynn of Wellesley recently welcomed his first child, a daughter, Alice Patricia. Jim is an eye-ear-nose and throat specialist with offices at 520 Commonwealth Avenue. George Stuart will graduate from the Law School in June. George has three children, resides in Braintree, and is associated with the Lumbermens Mutual Casualty Co. Bill Slye is a social worker with the Brockton Bureau of Old Age Assistance. Bill is married to the former Marie Clifford of Brockton and has a son, Tommy, age 2½.

Ed Gough was recently promoted to the position of head social worker in the State Department of Public Welfare. Ed lives in Newton and has four children.

Henry Titus is now guidance director for boys at Lynn Classical High School. He is living in Nahant, and is the father of two sons. Father Matthew Coughlin has been transferred to St. Clement's, Somerville.

Planning a June wedding are John L. Roach and Mary E. Nelson of Illinois. The wedding will take place in Athens, Greece, where both are located with the E.C.A., John as general counsel.

Ed Kelly is engaged to Josephine Phillips of Dedham.

George W. Miles is director of the Worden's School of Social Service at Our Lady of the Lake College in San Antonio, Texas.

Gerard Weidmann was married in April to Marie E. Ibach of Dorchester.

Rev. Charles E. Anadore was ordained on May 3.

EUGENE F. DONALDSON

59 West Milton St., Hyde Park 36

The class extends its heartfelt sympathy to Dr. Frank Crimmings of Rochester, New York, on the death of his wife.

At the last dinner meeting Dr. Dick Maloney, Paul Dwyer and Roy Lynch were elected to succeed John Griffin, Jim Mullen and Al Morris for a three-year term on the Class Governing Committee.

John Collins, father of 4 children (3 boys-1 girl), is Medical Service Representative with Abbott Laboratories of North Chicago, Illinois. He lives in Melrose.

Bill Coffey holds the same position with Lakeside Laboratories of Milwaukee. Bill lives in Marshfield, has one child, and quite a reputation as a deep sea fisherman.

Ed Feeney has moved recently to Jamaica Plain. Single, Ed is with the State supervising in construction and survey projects.

Jim Clerkin's Calumet Construction Co., is building the Somerville Veterans Housing Project.

Dan Holland is now manager of John Donnelly & Sons, Advertising, and continues as chairman of the Red Cross Blood Donors Committee for Metropolitan Boston.

Now living on Winthrop Shore Drive is Dr. John Sacco.

Dom DeStefano, treasurer of D. DeStefano Co., paper merchants, has two little girls. His favorite sport is trout and salmon fishing at Moosehead Lake.

Tom Kelly, vice-president of Thomas Kelly & Sons, Inc., is doing very well in the fuel oil business. He has branched out recently as a dealer in General Electric Television. Tom visited Jerry Sheehy in Louisville, Kentucky, where Jerry is plant superintendent for Colgate-Palmolive-Peet. Each has two children.

John A. Burke is now a sub-master in the Boston School system. He had an article published in a recent issue of the "Journal of Education", and is still affiliated with Harvard Law School research.

Charlie Berry has moved to Cambridge where he is assistant director of Mt. Auburn Hospital. Charlie is doing graduate school work in his off hours and reports that his two-year old son is B. C. bound.

Jim Griffin, Jim Hinchey, Ted McDonough, John Prendergast and Charlie Greeley all hold important posts with the State Division of Employment Security.

Frank Drinan, Principal of Lincoln and Hurd Schools in Wakefield, is attending the Harvard Graduate School for an advanced degree but manages to afford time for an occasional golf match with Art Sullivan, a fellow member of Meadowbrook G. C. in Reading.

Dr. Jim McDonough and his wife have just returned from 5 weeks in Europe. Jim read a paper before a group of eminent doctors in Paris—quite an honor—and spent Easter in Rome.

Dr. Paul Hurley, office at 270 Commonwealth Avenue, is the proud father of four—the latest, a girl. Jack Flynn also reports his fourth child—finally a boy!

Zeb Farley is still in the accounting office of the Boston & Maine R.R., and following his hobby of doing publicity work for the Holy Name Society in local papers.

John Griffin is a candidate for secretary of the Alumni Association. Be sure to vote—the competition is keen.

Father Jim Hart is now stationed at the Sacred Heart parish, Medford and Father Bob Adams at St. Cecilia's, Boston.

Dave Concannon is marshaling his forces for the Fall election in which he will be running for Congressman in the 13th District—Milton, Quincy, Brockton, Norwood, etc. An excellent chance to work for good government by giving a classmate some active support and assistance.

Bill Fitzsimons recently married Kathleen Murphy of Lawrence. He is assistant to the chief of the law department of the MTA, but continues to maintain his office at 40 Court Street. Congratulations, Bill, on two counts.

The committee in charge of '35 activities for Alumni Day consists of John Griffin, John Healy, who did a grand job arranging for the dinner last month at the Officer's Club, Charlestown Navy Yard, Ed O'Brien, Henry Fallon and Mike Collins. Please get those completed forms to Joe Curran immediately for the 15th Anniversary directory. We need two hundred to make the project worthwhile. Send it now.

JOSEPH P. KEATING

18 Reynolds Avenue, Natick

The deepest sympathy of the Class is extended to the families of John B. O'Connor of Quincy who died in April, and Thomas Grimes who died in January. Sympathy is also extended to Father John Zuromskis whose mother passed away in April.

The Annual Class Communion Breakfast held in April was very successful. Paul Flaherty, chairman, deserves a "well done" for his hard work which assured the success of the breakfast. Father Douglas, S.J., celebrated the Mass. Among the more than thirty in attendance were Joe Clougherty, John DiNapoli, Denny Dooley, Al Fulchino, Leo Horgan, Bernard Kelley, Tom Killion, Warren Mac-Millan, John Mahoney, Bill Ryan, Frank Hilbrunner, Larry Smith, plus the rest of the regular "stand-byes".

Steve Hart is to be congratulated on initiating the "Class of '36 Newsletter." Steve, to whom we owe thanks for most of the news appearing in this issue, has done an A-1 job as president this past year, and on behalf of the Class I want to extend our sincere thanks to him for his work and interest.

Annual Class dues of one dollar are payable now, so if you haven't sent along your "buck", mail it now to either Stephen E. Hart, 15 Mill Street, Randolph, or Rev. Albert Powers, St. Theresa's Rectory, Watertown.

Tom Keane was chairman of the annual class dinner held at the Harvard Club on May 25.

Larry Smith is working for the VA in Brockton; George White is a selectman in Mattapoisett; Dr. Jim O'Leary, now practising in Framingham, was recently elected to the school committee of that town; Charlie Sampson has been appointed associate director of the National Community Chests and Councils. Charlie resigned as executive secretary of the Troy, N. Y., Community Chest to accept the new position.

Louis Mercier is Picture Editor of Holiday magazine, is married, and had one daughter at last report.

Arthur O'Connor, VA contract chief, has returned from a two weeks turn of duty in the Navy.

From Chicago comes word of Drury Connor's marriage to Miss Anne Florance on Saturday, April 29.

EDWARD J. PHILLIPS, JR.

7 Dickinson Road, Brighton 35

The sympathy of the Class is extended to the family of Tom Grimes, who died suddenly in April. Also to Teddy Glynn on the recent death of his father.

Dr. Francis C. Kane is now the proud father of four sons. His old sidekick, Dr. Mike Frasca, has two boys and two girls. The recent birth of a son to Dr. and Mrs. Jack O'Hara makes two girls and a boy for Jack. Jack is opening a surgical practice in Athol.

John Keary is still associated with the F.B.I., as is John Gleason. The latter was recently transferred from the New England region to a post in Houston, Texas. He is married and has three sons.

Teddy Glynn and Jim Kenney are gaining a fine reputation as trial lawyers. Teddy is planning to re-enter public life and has announced his candidacy for Clerk of the Suffolk Superior Court.

Visiting St. Aidan's Rectory, Brookline, I was surprised and pleased to find Father John J. Linnehan has been assigned as a curate there for the past two years. Father Joe Quinn of the Paulist order is enjoying fine success with his Newman Club activities.

Dr. Jim Bragan is giving a course in Everyday Psychology for the Lawrence Y.W.C.A. He is the psychiatric consultant at Carney Hospital, South Boston.

John Casserly is the newly named manager of the North Adams office of the State Division of Employment Security. He is married and has two children.

Pete Shannon is now salesmanager of The Observer Press, Braintree. Some of the Class have told me that their work prevents them from attending Alumni Day. This situation confronts the majority but remember there is also Alumni Night and you could plan to get out to the Heights at 6.30 for the dinner and festivities.

THOMAS F. TRUE, JR.

65 North Ave., West Roxbury 32

The monthly luncheon has been instituted as a regular feature of our class program. The next one will be held on Tuesday, June 6, at 12.30 at Thompson's Spa, Newspaper Row, Boston. Plan to be there because this will be the last luncheon meeting before they are resumed in October.

An election of officers was held after our Annual Communion Breakfast. Tom O'Connor and Paul Schultz were re-elected president and treasurer respectively. Vin Shamirian is the new vice-president. A word of thanks is due to the chairman of the breakfast, Paul Mulkern, and to the guest speakers, Father Dan O'Connor and Ed Mullen. Also to the committee and others who contributed to the success of the affair.

Martin "Babe" Hanley, former assistant corporation counsel for the City of Boston, has been appointed an assistant banking commissioner for the State. "Babe" recently joined the ranks of the benedicts. John Galway, associated with Fanny Farmer Co., has been transferred to Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He is married and has two children.

Stationed at Maguire Air Force Base, Fort Dix, N. J., is Major Dick Blood. Also stationed out of state, with the F.B.I., are Paul Sharkey and Vin Crowley. Paul is in California, and Vin, a recent bridegroom, in Kansas City, Mo.

Mark Foley and Gerry Harrington are with the Internal Revenue; Joe Sheehan connected with Hearst Advertising Service; Frank Stapleton in the legal department of General Electric; Jim O'Donoghue is a vocational appraiser at Boston University.

Jack Sullivan has been appointed counsel for the Board of Public Welfare, Boston; Bill McNally is with the State Income Tax Division.

Jim Lyons has moved to Brockton and Ed Supple is living in Auburn-dale.

Working out of North Adams for the V.A. is Jim Kissell; Brad Mahoney, a traffic engineer for New England Tel. & Tel.; Joe Powers is with Bigelow & Dowse, hard-

The Class luncheon arranged so successfully last year is to be repeated this year. Dinty Moore's has been re-engaged, private dining-room, private bar, excellent food and lots of "hot talk." About 125 enjoyed the gathering last year and we are confident of a larger attendance this year. Bob Griffin heads a committee that includes John Cronin, Bill Donovan, Lou Sacco and Norm Pilote. Don't forget—June 12 at noon at Dinty Moore's.

On May 2 at Thompson's Spa, Boston, David Lucey, director of the current Alumni Fund drive, met with Frank Cuddy and a committee of class volunteers who are assisting in the drive. Present were Bill Donovan, Ed Ash, John Mahoney, Jerry Troy, Phil Thompson, Bill Flynn, Ed Hall, Norm Pilote, John Cronin and Bob Griffin.

George Devlin has been appointed a member of the Belmont Housing Authority. He is married and resides in that town.

Paul Keefe is program director of station WOTW, Nashua, N. H. He was associated with WCOP, Boston, for 10 years. Paul is married and has three children, Paul, Jr., Cheryl and Linda.

Dr. Leo Monaghan has been appointed visiting physician for the parochial schools of Brockton. He lives in that city with his wife and two sons, Richard and Paul.

Attorney Jerome Troy was one of the guest speakers at the testimonial tendered the Collector of the Port of Boston, William H. Burke.

John D. Donovan was married last January to Mary Phipps of Waltham. Engagements announced recently include that of Dr. Roy Lydon to Miss Anne T. Fitzgibbons, R.N., of Norwood; Larry Fitzpatrick to Rita McNamara, Somerville; Joe Hammond to Florence Crocker, Dorchester.

Rev. John Lawler is at headquarters-Greenland Base Command and his address is APO 858, c/o P.M., New York.

THE BUMP ON BRANNIGAN'S HEAD

By Myles Connolly

(Macmillan, 1950. 157 pp. $2.50)

This is a pleasant and quietly humorous yarn about a choleric old Tad who is shocked by a bump on the head and the mild taunts of an agnostic son to try the great Christian experiment of loving one's neighbor. His example inspires a local crusade which is at first exploited and then later sabotaged by selfish interests in the community, notably a munitions manufacturer and a newspaper publisher.

The book bears the mark of Mr. Connolly's experience as a maker and writer of motion pictures. In fact, it might well serve as the basis of a movie scenario. Told largely in dialogue, with quick-moving action, homespun humor, a seasoning of love interest and a dash of hokum, it seems to possess all the requisites for a "homey" sort of picture, "unobjectionable for general patronage," as the Legion of Decency would say.
